INSTRUCTIONS

THIS TEST IS REFERENCED TO THE NEW 2010 FRIEND AT COURT

(A 2009 FAC COULD BE USED IF NECESSARY. References remain the same)

The following test has been written from the Rules of Tennis (or Appendixes). The Code, and USTA Tournament Regulations. It is an OPEN BOOK test. Take as much time as you need. The purpose is to be instructional. There will be no “failures.”

The test is 60 questions. The odd numbered questions will have multiple choice answers. The even numbered questions will have multiple choice reference answers for the preceding question. Take the test and answer sheet with you to a Provisional School. There the instructor will grade your test, and ask you to look up sources for any missed questions. Return the corrected answer sheet to the instructor, thereby “passing” the test.

In some cases your Sectional or District Chairperson will have you return the test directly to him/her without you going to a Provisional School. This may expedite your entry into the world of officiating.

There is an answer sheet attached as the last page of the test. Please mark your answers on the answer sheet only. Shade in the correct answer (shade darkly). You may keep the test for further study.
